BRECKENRIDGE, Colo. — March 6, 2017 — With heavy snow falling across the Colorado Rockies today, mother nature is setting the stage for Spring Fever at Breckenridge Ski Resort, bringing the best spring snow in the Rockies to a packed event calendar of new and favorite events across Breck's five huge mountain peaks.

Spring Fever kicks off with the jaw-dropping, GoPro IFSA Big Mountain Challenge as some of the best big-mountain athletes carve up Breck's epic above-treeline terrain on Peak 6, March 18-19. New this year, the resort and community introduce Breck Pride week – for everyone - LGBTQ, straight, skiers, snowboarders, beginners, experts, supporters – come one, come all to help start a new tradition in Breckenridge. Finally, to finish off the ski season with a splash, Breck presents the new Breck Plunge pond skim on closing day, April 23, 2017.

Spring Fever is all about fun, sun, après parties, vacation savings and enjoying the more than 21 feet of snow at Breck so far this season. See it for yourself here: https://youtu.be/49_VZTD0ygw
