Fun Fore All
Keystone Resort is home to two distinct golf courses, offering 36-holes of championship golf in one idyllic setting. The River Course offers impressive elevation changes, variable bunkers, water hazards and six sets of tees on each hole to challenge and welcome golfers of all ability levels. Keystone Ranch Golf Course is set on historic ranch land where original structures and old western heritage remain throughout the course, providing a nostalgic feel amongst the breathtaking scenery. Avid golfers will appreciate Keystone's Stay, Play & Save lodging and golf packages, continually recognized as one of Colorado's best stay and play offers, while families can take advantage of a Kids Swing Free program, Time for Nine rates and two golf courses that offer six sets of tees on each hole.

Kids Rule Keystone
Keystone's signature daily Kidtopia programming provides families with a variety of activities and adventures that are free throughout the entire summer. From June 9 to Sept. 3, Kidtopia offerings such as nature hikes, kite building workshops and Wild West nights allow families to enjoy creative experiences that provide added ways to enjoy the resort. Additionally, special events such as the Strider Bike Series and Kidtopia Discovery Days provide free outdoor entertainment in the heart of Keystone's River Run Village on select dates. The summer Kidtopia schedule can be found at www.keystoneresort.com/activities/kidtopia-summer.aspx.

Summer Snow Tubing: Yes – Summer. Snow. Tubing.
Even after the close of the ski and snowboard season at Keystone, guests can still get their adrenaline fix this summer at the Adventure Point tubing hill, where a not-so-secret stash of snow awaits. Situated at 11,640-feet elevation atop Dercum Mountain, Keystone boasts the only summer snow tubing operation in Colorado held on actual snow. Guests can zip down multiple tubing lanes, without all the winter apparel, and enjoy conveyor-lift access back to the top. Keystone's summer snow tubing is set to open on June 9.

Keystone Bike Park: Downhill Thrills
The Keystone Bike Park features 55 lift-serviced singletrack mountain biking trails, with progressive terrain welcoming riders of all ability levels. With a dedicated trail crew, the Bike Park will feature a variety of new upgrades and additions, including new features, re-worked trails, increased bike haul capacity and a free skills park to promote progression. The Keystone Bike Academy caters to riders of all levels with beginner clinics, private lessons, downhill guides and a new camp designed just for kids. Bike and full downhill gear rentals are conveniently available at Keystone Sports locations in the resort's River Run Village, and Bike Park Season Passes may be purchased now by visiting keystoneresort.com. The Keystone Bike Park is set to open on Friday, June 9.

Lakeside Village: Activities On and Around Keystone Lake

Stand up paddle boarding, kayaking, canoeing, paddle boating, lakeside bicycle rides, whichever the mode of transportation the Keystone Lake presents a picturesque mountain setting. Located in Lakeside Village, the Keystone Adventure Center provides boat and bike rentals, arcade games, beach toys, snacks and a bar.

Festival Season: Bacon, Brews, Wine, Live Music

Summers have become the season of festivals, and this certainly holds true at Keystone Resort. Guests can pair the multitude of available mountain adventures with a signature festival or event for an affordable and unique way to complement any summer stay at the resort. Summer festivals include the Blue Ribbon Bacon Tour (June 24-25); Keystone Wine and Jazz Festival (July 15-16); River Run Village Art Festival (July 29-30); Keystone Bluegrass and Beer Festival (Aug. 5-6); Mountain Town Music Festival (Aug. 18-19); Keystone Oktoberfest (Sept. 2) and Taste of Keystone (Sept. 3).

Ultimate Family Adventure

Keystone Resort's Ultimate Family Summer Adventure allows families to create their own mountain experience based upon their preferences. Through a personalized selection of lodging accommodations, unique activities, dining experiences and events, families can connect through shared memories. Whether it's enjoying free daily Kidtopia family events, taking a scenic chairlift ride to the top of the mountain, hitting the links for a round of golf, horseback riding through the White River National Forest, enjoying the Keystone Lake, relaxing poolside at one of Keystone's numerous lodging accommodations, or embarking upon a wagon ride dinner to an original ranch homestead, families will find no shortage of opportunity to disconnect and enjoy the great outdoors. Summer lodging rates begin at $99, with free scenic lift ticket for any child 12 and younger, as well as free nine holes of golf, a free guided hike, and a free fitness or yoga class for everyone in the group – adult or child.
