PARK CITY, UT (May 10, 2017)– After enjoying one of the snowiest winters in years, Park City Mountain is heating up for summer. In addition to stunning views and fresh mountain air, Park City Mountain offers an expansive variety of summer adventures and events across two distinct base areas including family activities, scenic gondola rides, breathtaking hikes, world-class mountain biking trails, live music, mountainside accommodations and gourmet dining. Summer operations at the Park City Base Area and Canyons Golf will begin on May 26. The Canyons Village and Park City Bike Park will open for summer on June 16.

This Summer at Park City Mountain:

$15 Million Grand Summit Renovation

Grand Summit Hotel, located in Canyons Village, will undergo an extensive $15 million renovation this spring and subsequent flagging as a RockResorts property. Boulder, Colo. based TRH Design has pulled from the surrounding natural beauty of Park City to bring together a color palette and design aesthetic that will complement the destination. The renovation will include a complete overhaul of all 212 suites, including new interior finishes, furnishings, soft goods, appliances, artwork and technology. The property's communal spaces will also be incorporated into the renovation, including the lobby and front desk, full remodel of the on-site spa, café and general store, and refresh of the meeting spaces. The hotel will reopen in mid-summer. More information here.
