NORTH AND SOUTH LAKE TAHOE, Calif./Nev. –Aug. 1, 2017– Epic Local pass holders can now ski Whistler Blackcomb, the largest resort in North America, and the Best of Tahoe resorts, including Heavenly Mountain, Northstar California and Kirkwood Mountain. The Epic Local Pass pays for itself in just over three days of skiing or riding and offers West Coast skiers and snowboarders unlimited access to Heavenly, Northstar and Kirkwood in Tahoe and Park City in Utah with limited holiday restrictions; unlimited access to Breckenridge, Keystone and Arapahoe Basin in Colorado and 10 days total at Whistler Blackcomb in Canada, Vail and Beaver Creek in Colorado, and Stowe Mountain Resort in Vermont. At just $639 for adults and $339 for children, skiers and snowboarders who purchase their 2017-2018 Epic Local Pass before September 4, 2017 are guaranteed the lowest price.

The Tahoe Local pass offers the greatest value to experience Best of Tahoe in one season pass — from Heavenly’s high-energy atmosphere and unmatched lake views to the relaxed California luxury of Northstar California and Kirkwood’s authentic, big-mountain terrain. Legendary natural snowfall coupled with the most sophisticated snowmaking systems on the West Coast consistently offer skiers and riders the best conditions in Tahoe. The Tahoe Local Pass is designed for guests who plan to primarily ski in Tahoe this winter. The Tahoe Local Pass provides skiers and snowboarders with access to Heavenly, Northstar and Kirkwood seven days a week with limited holiday restrictions, all for $549 for adults, $439 for teens and $279 for children. The pass also includes five total days of skiing and snowboarding at Utah’s Park City, the largest ski resort in the U.S., and Colorado’s Vail, Beaver Creek, Breckenridge, Keystone, and Arapahoe Basin with limited holiday restrictions.
