Keystone to Host Annual Outpost Dining Coat Drive for Half-Off Dinner

Two of Keystone Resort's signature mountaintop restaurants will offer guests 50 percent off dinner with the donation of a winter coat, which will be provided to Summit County's Family & Intercultural Resource Center (FIRC). Valid at Alpenglow Stube and Der Fondue Chessel on Dec. 1-2 and 8-9, guests experience two gondola rides en route to the top of North Peak.

The Alpenglow Stube provides fine dining at 11,444 feet, the highest AAA Four-Diamond rated dining experience in North America, while the neighboring Der Fondue Chessel offers an exciting and interactive dining experience for the whole family, complete with accordion-wielding musicians in lederhosen.

"With the holiday season upon us, guests have the opportunity to not only give back to our community but to also enjoy an evening at either of our unique mountaintop dining experiences," said Amy Geppi, senior director of mountain dining. "The coats we collect and donate directly help local families here in Summit County."

All guests in the party must bring a coat to donate in order for everyone at the table to receive the discount, and no other discounts will apply. Coats must be donated on the night of dining and reservations are required. Reservations can be made in advance by calling 970-496-4386 or visiting KeystoneResort.com.
