

Breck Break: The Best Times To Hit the Slopes at Breckenridge Ski Resort

BRECKENRIDGE, Colo. – Jan. 4, 2018 – With the best snow and terrain, five huge mountain peaks to explore by day, an authentic hip mountain town to experience by night, and lively free events, ‘Breck Break’ is the perfect time to visit Breckenridge. Guests who book a vacation between January 16 and March 11, 2018 can enjoy all that Breck Break has to offer including some of the biggest savings of the season, with up to 30% off on lodging at www.Breckenridge.com.

Ullr Fest Rocks Breckenridge Jan. 10-13, 2018

For more than 50 years, the Breckenridge community has paid tribute to Ullr (rhymes with cooler), the Norse god of snow. Grab a Viking helmet and join the town-wide snow dance which includes the iconic Main Street parade, Ullr Ice Plunge, (unofficial) world’s longest shot ski and more.

International Snow Sculpture Championships – Jan. 22-29, 2018

Snow carving in Breckenridge began as a local pastime; today, decorated snow artists from across the globe transform 20-ton blocks of snow into an outdoor art gallery. The Breckenridge Fire Arts Festival runs the same weekend as a fiery contrast of burning sculptures, pyrotechnical effects and other spark-filled attractions.

Pass Holder Appreciation Jan. 16 – Feb. 2, 2018

For loyal guest of Breckenridge, enjoy demo days, First Tracks, EpicMix Racing, parties, live music and giveaways, plus exclusive perks including 15 percent off food and 20 percent off lodging.

Women’s Ski Week, Feb. 11-16, 2018

The fourth annual Women’s Ski Week – a week dedicated to women and snow sports – returns to Breck, Feb. 11-16. Women’s Ski Week at Breckenridge Ski Resort highlights the resort’s offerings for women of all ages in a welcoming, supportive and fun environment aimed at improving skiing or snowboarding skills. The classes encourage moms, sisters, daughters and girlfriends to get the most out of the mountain and town, while connecting them with other like-minded women who also love snow sports. Men are of course always welcome at Breck and can join some of the fun, too. Find more information at www.breckenridge.com.
