

Whistler Blackcomb and Gibbons Whistler Partner to Revitalize the 2018 World Ski and Snowboard Festival

The Festival will also see the return of a classic - The Saudan Couloir Ski Race Extreme

WHISTLER, BC January 15, 2018 – Whistler Blackcomb along with Gibbons Whistler is pleased to announce a new partnership to present North America's premier celebration of mountain culture, the World Ski and Snowboard Festival. Now in its 23rd year, this end-of-season event celebrates the qualities that make Whistler great – snow sports, music and the arts.

"This event celebrates the best of what Whistler offers," said Pete Sonntag, Whistler Blackcomb's Chief Operating Officer. "It is unique and our new partnership with Gibbons Whistler allows us to continue to run this world-class festival for our community and our guests."

The 2018 edition of the WSSF will run from April 10th to 15th. New to the festival this year, the return of a classic, the Saudan Couloir Ski Race Extreme. The legendary race is the world's steepest ski and snowboard competition. For the first time, the WSSF will host the World Championships of the Monster Energy Boarderstyle Tour. Also featuring, two ski and snowboard Big Air Competitions in Skiers Plaza with enhanced music programming from internationally known DJs and musicians. The Freeride Après series is back with live music at various venues as well as popular multi-media showcases like the Olympus 72 hour Filmmaker Showdown.

"The WSSF has deep roots in this community and we are pleased to be a part of the festival's revitalization," said Joey Gibbons, Chief Executive Officer of Gibbons Whistler. "This is only the start of a multi-year partnership and we are excited by the opportunity it presents."

Tourism Whistler will continue to play a significant role and will provide support as well as use of the Whistler Conference Centre as a venue for the Festival.
