Park City Mountain Debuts New Event: Seven Summits Challenge

•Brand new this season, Park City Mountain will host the inaugural Seven Summits Challenge on Saturday, Feb. 24.

Brand new this season, Park City Mountain will host the inaugural Seven Summits Challenge on Saturday, Feb. 24. Designed as a completion challenge for advanced skiers and snowboarders who truly want to conquer the largest ski resort in the United States, the Seven Summits Challenge takes participants on a winter adventure from one edge of Park City Mountain to the other tackling seven of the resort's most iconic peaks including Jupiter Peak, Dream Peak and 9990.

This event isn't for the faint of heart. To complete the challenge, participants will be required to hike a handful of peaks and navigate their way across some of the most advanced terrain on the mountain. Participants can choose their own routes, but must check in at all seven pre-designated peak locations on the mountain. The challenge will begin at the Park City Mountain Village and will end with a celebratory après ski party at Red Pine Lodge.

The event is designed as a completion challenge, not a race. In addition to bragging rights, all participants who complete the challenge will receive a commemorative pin and hat and will be entered into an opportunity drawing to win prizes including Helly Hansen gear.

Event registration is open now and a portion of all registration fees will benefit local Park City nonprofit, SOS. For more information, click here.
