Make a Splash at Keystone's Annual Closing Day Slush Cup Celebration

Keystone Resort celebrates another winter season with its annual end-of-season Slush Cup on Sunday, April 8. This event consists of fun for the entire family, including pond skimming competitions for both kids and adults. Participants are encouraged to dress up in creative costumes and compete for prizes and glory by launching themselves off a jump in attempts to skim across water. Returning again this season, the Kidtopia Slush Cup will offer a separate, smaller pond for younger contestants ages 6-12. For more information, and to register in advance, visit KeystoneResort.com.

The Slush Cup begins at 1 p.m. at the Mountain House Base Area and features music from Red Bull's Mobile DJ Truck and premier Denver DJ, DJ Low Key. It is free for spectators to join the fun at this end-of-season tradition, so grab your shades and lawn chair and come soak up the sun, listen to some tunes and cheer for your favorite contestants. A panel of highly-skilled judges will score competitors on distance, style, creativity and water resistance. At 3 p.m. prizes will be awarded to top skimmers in the Slush Cup and Kidtopia Slush Cup for Best Overall and Best Costume.

The Keystone Slush Cup is open to participants ages 13 and up and the Kidtopia Slush Cup is for ages 6-12. Registration is $35 for ages 13 and older, and kids 12 and younger are free. Space is limited and participants can register for the Slush Cup and Kidtopia Slush Cup in advance, online at KeystoneResort.com. Day-of registration and check-in will take place starting at 8 a.m. at the Mountain House Base Area lodge, but early registration is encouraged to guarantee a spot in the event. There is no admission cost for spectators.
