The Okee Dokee Brothers Highlight Keystone Resort's Stars and Guitars Event

Keystone, Colo. — June 21, 2018— Keystone Resort's Kidtopia Stars and Guitars celebrates the Independence Day holiday with live mountaintop music, special Kidtopia events, outdoor barbecues, and more. The Okee Dokee Brothers, a GRAMMY® award-winning band from Denver, Colo., highlight the event with a free mid-day mountaintop concert on Sunday, July 1. The duo has put their passion for the outdoors at the heart of their family-friendly Americana Folk music, recording and performing music with a goal to inspire families to get outside.

Keystone provides a mountain playground ideal for outdoor family adventures and play, with the new Kidtopia Stars and Guitars event offering lodging rates up to 30 percent off. Throughout the week, families can enjoy history walks, kids' yoga, s'mores under the stars, barbecues, and meeting working draft horses in addition to the multitude of everyday activities offered at the resort. For the entire Stars and Guitars lineup, visit KeystoneResort.com.

Offering a laid-back environment that is full of adventures with fewer crowds, families will find plenty of opportunities to connect at Keystone through a variety of experiences, all with the Rocky Mountains providing the backdrop. Whether it's a mountaintop hike, enjoying a round of golf on either of Keystone's scenic courses, downhill mountain biking, horseback riding, summer snow tubing, stand up paddle boarding, enjoying free live mountaintop music or simply relaxing poolside, the allure of the mountains come to life at Keystone Resort.

To make the most of a visit to Keystone, book lodging directly through the resort for exclusive benefits. With any stay, all guests receive Play for Free activities including free golf, free tennis court usage, free guided hikes, a free fitness or yoga class for everyone on the reservation and free scenic lift tickets for any child 12 and younger.
