The Best of Tahoe Resorts Expand Ski and Ride Terrain

•Heavenly Mountain Resort is now operating 250 scenic acres
•Northstar California is open top-to-bottom
•Kirkwood Mountain expands terrain including beginner and double black diamond trails.

SOUTH LAKE TAHOE/TRUCKEE, Calif. – Dec. 3, 2018 – After receiving nearly four feet of fresh snowfall, the Best of Tahoe Resorts, including Heavenly Mountain, Northstar California and Kirkwood Mountain, expand terrain for skiers and riders ahead of the holiday season.

Heavenly is operating 490 acres of ski-and-ride terrain overlooking Lake Tahoe. Including the scenic gondola, which transports skiers, riders and guests on foot, the resort is operating 7 lifts accessing a diverse array of trails. Runs from the top of the gondola include The Big Easy, California Trail, Aries alongside 17 intermediate to advanced trails on the Nevada side of the resort.

Northstar California is open top-to-bottom spinning Comstock Express chairlift, which provides access to the Mt. Pluto summit and more than 23 trails in that territory alone. The resort is currently operating nine chairlifts and 36 trails from the summit all the way down to Village Run. Terrain for beginners to experts is available including Easy Street, East Ridge and Grouse Alley trails. Man-made additions include three terrain parks with 20 features for multiple ability levels and two Kids Adventure Zones.

Kirkwood Mountain invites skiers and riders to experience more than 800 acres of terrain, including Chair 10 accessing The Wall, a double black diamond trail known for its ridgeline. Beginner terrain located lower on the mountain includes Timber Creek, an area comprised of green circle trails leading up to intermediate runs crafted for progressive learning. In total, the resort is operating 50 trails and 7 chairlifts.
