New Stevens Pass Bike Park Pass Offers More Trails, More Resorts

2019 Freeride Bike Park Pass brings EPIC benefits to Stevens Pass riders

LEAVENWORTH, Washington. — May 13, 2019 —The 2019 Stevens Pass Bike Park season pass will now include one day at all U.S. Vail Resorts Bike Parks as well as additional discounts for food and beverage, lessons, and lodging.

“This new pass offers access to many of North America’s greatest bike parks,” said Ben Fok, director of skier services for Stevens Pass. “This is really exciting for our guests. Not only will they have access to the only lift serviced park in Washington, the new pass grants them access to 9 other parks across the continent and exclusive ticket discounts for friends and family.”

This summer’s Freeride Bike Park Pass will include unlimited, unrestricted riding at Stevens Pass and one day at each Northstar, Kirkwood, Keystone, Vail, Crested Butte, Breckenridge, Okemo, and Mt. Sunapee. If guests purchase their pass before July 20th, one unrestricted day at Whistler Blackcomb Bike Park will also be included. Tickets will be available beginning May 16 for $259 for 14 & over and $209 for 13 & under.

These Freeride Bike Park Passes also include five Ride with a Friend tickets – a 30% discount off a day ticket for your friend or family member – as well as 15% off food and beverage purchases, 10% off lessons, and 20% off lodging at properties owned by Vail Resorts.

This summer, Stevens Pass is replacing the Daisy and Brooks chairlifts. The bike park will not be open on Thursdays this summer, but, come winter, Stevens Pass guests will have two new high-speed quad chairlifts that will help create an additional 9% uphill capacity in the winter and reduce time spent in line, which means more time on the snow.

Stevens Pass summer starts on June 28th and will feature exciting events throughout the summer like the NW Cup Race Series, SheJumps, SAS Ladies Day, and more.
