Vail Resorts extends season in Colorado

BROOMFIELD, CO – March 9, 2021: Vail Resorts is pleased to announce the 2020-21 ski and ride season will be extended at Beaver Creek Resort, Keystone Resort and Vail Mountain Resort. The extended season means more time on mountain and on the snow. It is a way of saying thank you to pass holders and guests for their continued support, for following safety protocols and showing personal responsibility during this unprecedented season, and for helping us open and stay open. The revised closing dates are as follows:

- Beaver Creek – Sunday, April 11, 2021
- Keystone – Sunday, April 11, 2021
- Vail – Sunday, April 18,, 2021

In addition, these Colorado resorts may stay open longer than today's announced extensions should conditions permit.

Breckenridge Ski Resort will maintain its season plan to operate through Memorial Day, with a projected closing date of May 31, 2021, as will Crested Butte Mountain Resort, with a closing date of April 4, 2021.
