

Colorado's Awesome Activities for Kids (of Any Age)

Take the whole family on a road trip and explore each of our resorts that have fun for all ages! From gem panning and coasters to rock climbing walls and trampolines, there's something for everyone in the family to enjoy.

Breck

Opened in late summer 2017, Epic Discovery offers a variety of zones and activities designed to immerse guests in nature while highlighting Breck's rich landscapes, local history and possibilities for adventure. The summer fun starts at Peak 8 Base Camp and offers a hub of family-friendly activities geared towards the younger guests and signature summer thrills like the Gold Runner Coaster and Alpine Slides. From there, take a scenic ride on the Colorado SuperChair to Alpine Camp where you can scale multiple routes on the Gold Summit Climbing Wall, test your balance and maneuver the obstacles of the Alpineer Challenge Course, embark on a scenic hike with learn-through-play activities and more.

Keystone

Keystone's Lakeside Village is the ultimate hub for little ones. Grab the kiddos and dive into the fun with gem panning, trampolines, and kayaking and paddle boarding on Keystone's 5-acre lake. Families can also rent bikes to explore miles of the county's recreational bike path and the beautiful riverside environment that runs through the resort.

Crested Butte

Families love Crested Butte Mountain Resort's Adventure Park. Whether chasing adrenaline on the bungee trampolines and rock climbing pinnacle, or finding excitement while panning for gems and knocking holes-in-one on the miniature golf course, the Adventure Park is the ultimate for untamed family fun.

Vail

Perfect for parents and kids alike, Vail's Epic Discovery offers something for everyone. Experience the thrill of our 3,400-foot-long Forest Flyer Mountain Coaster or hop in a tube and rush down our 550-foot-long tubing hill with Eagle's Nest Tubing. Smaller thrill-seekers will enjoy the bungee trampoline, climbing wall and kid specific mini tubing and zip line course.

Beaver Creek

The Beaver Creek Adventure Center, located in the heart of the village, is the one-stop shop for the best kid's activities and offerings. Bounce around on the bungee trampoline or race friends and family to the top of the outdoor climbing wall. Once back on the ground, enjoy mini golf or gem panning where kids can find several types of unique rocks, gems, fool's gold and even arrowheads! For families looking to adventure up into the mountain, close to 50 miles of hiking, biking and walking trails await.
