Vail Resorts' Five Colorado Resorts Announce Summer Opening Dates and Operations

As ski and ride season begins to wind down in Colorado, Vail Resorts' five Colorado resorts announced today plans for their summer operations. Crested Butte will kick off the summer season and on-mountain operations on June 11, followed by Vail Mountain and Breckenridge on June 17, Beaver Creek on June 18, and Keystone on June 22.

All five Colorado resorts will offer scenic lift/gondola rides, bike hauls, and a variety of activities. Epic Discovery is returning to Vail and Breckenridge, offering expanded family-friendly activities including alpine slides, mountain coasters, summer tubing (Vail), ropes course (Breck), bungee trampolines and more. Keystone and Crested Butte's Bike Parks are back this year, along with a new mountain bike event at Keystone and a race series at Crested Butte. Beaver Creek and Keystone's signature golf courses open in May; and Blues, Brews and BBQ returns to Beaver Creek for the first time since 2019.

Read on for more about summer 2022 operations at each of the resorts.

COLORADO SUMMER OPENING DATES AND ACTIVITIES
