

Kirkwood Mountain Resort, Heavenly, and Northstar to Open Early on Saturday November 12

KIRKWOOD, HEAVENLY & NORTHSTAR TO OPEN EARLY FOR THE 2022/23 WINTER SEASON The three Tahoe-area resorts will open Saturday, November 12 – six days ahead of plan at Northstar & Heavenly and 20 days earlier than anticipated at Kirkwood

Three of the Lake Tahoe Region's premier resorts, Northstar California, Heavenly Mountain Resort, and Kirkwood Mountain Resort will kick off the 2022-2023 winter season earlier than initially planned on Saturday, November 12. Mother Nature delivered an earlier-than-expected mix of cold weather and snow, allowing for natural accumulation and supporting our excellent snowmaking teams to get the mountains read, ultimately allowing these resorts to welcome guests ahead of schedule. Northstar and Heavenly are opening six days earlier than anticipated, and Kirkwood is opening a whopping 20 days earlier than planned.

VP & COO of Heavenly and the Tahoe Region. "Mother Nature came through for us, allowing natural snowfall to fly and pile up while also giving us the temperatures needed for our snowmakers to do their best work. We are thankful for this incredible gift, and can't wait to welcome our guests back for winter. Most of all, I'd like to recognize and thank the incredible resort teams at these three mountains for kicking things into high gear and making it possible to open early. Winter is here and we are ready!"

All three resorts will continue to make snow and monitor the weather to expand terrain offerings.

"With three drivable resorts in the Tahoe region all offering a unique experience, there will be something for everyone to enjoy," said Fortune. "We are eager for another season of adventure and fun at our resorts."
