

Park City Mountain Extends 2022/23 Winter Season; Record Snowfall Sets Resort Up For The Longest Season Since 1993

Closing Day Moved Two Weeks Later to April 23, 2023

Extending beyond the originally planned April 9, 2023, closing date, weather and conditions permitting, Park City Mountain will offer:

- A majority of our chairlifts and trails, operating out of both base areas, through Sunday, April 16, 2023
- Continuing slope access out of the Mountain Village base area only through Sunday, April 23, 2023.
- After April 2, 2023, parking will be free in the Main, Silver King and First Time lots in the Mountain Village base area, as well as the Cabriolet lot in the Canyons Village base area. Parking reservations will not be required at the Mountain Village base area after April 2, 2023.

"My first season back working with the team at Park City Mountain has truly been an experience of a lifetime," said Deirdra Walsh, vice president and chief operating officer of Park City Mountain. "From our early opening in November and spinning all lifts by Christmas Day, through more than 400" of snowfall by March 1 — I have been mindful to appreciate every day. Thanks to record-breaking conditions and the hard work and dedication of all our teams and team members, we're thrilled to be able to offer two additional weeks of skiing and riding beyond what we had previously announced."

Still to come this season are a number of festive events for guests of all ages. The Spring Grūv Concert Series brings live music to Canyons Village every Saturday from March 4 through April 8. Spring Grūv is free for all ages and open to the public. The J. Lohr Women in Wine Dinner will take place at Legacy Lodge on Friday, March 24, and Park City Mountain's annual pond skim — a community favorite — returns to Mountain Village on Saturday, April 8.

Epic Passes for the 2023/24 season will go on sale tomorrow, March 7, 2023, at EpicPass.com.
