PARK CITY, Utah – May 21, 2024 – Summer begins at Park City Mountain on Saturday, June 8 with the Park City Mountain Village Adventure Park and scenic chairlift rides on Payday Express. Canyons Village activities, Town Lift and bike haul will open on June 15. For those in search of an earlier outing, Canyons Golf opens on Friday, May 24. This summer, Park City Mountain is excited to host a wide variety of fun summer events and concerts, including Park City Institute's Concerts on the Slopes and Forum Fest over the Fourth of July holiday.

"We can't wait to welcome everyone back to Park City Mountain for summer activities and events," said Deirdra Walsh, vice president and COO of Park City Mountain. "Summer in Park City is spectacular, and we're excited to share the beauty of the mountains in summer with our guests and community."

Park City Mountain offers more than 150 miles of summer trails, maintained in partnership with Mountain Trails Foundation, for hiking and biking. Two new mountain bike trails opened late last summer that bolster the variety of trails for all levels and provide new alternatives for downhill biking. Change Reaction is a new expert-level trail off the popular Charlie's 9k trail, and Seldom Seen is a directional downhill mountain bike only trail off the popular Spiro trail, with access back to the base area. Mother Urban is a new uphill-only trail that connects Park City Main Street with the popular Mid Mountain trail.
