As the last of the snow melts from a fun-filled winter, Seven Springs Mountain Resort is gearing up for a summer packed with unforgettable fun. From high-energy festivals to family-friendly mountain adventures, the resort is transforming into the Laurel Highlands' go-to destination for warm-weather excitement.

"Winter may be what we're known for, but summer at Seven Springs is pure magic," said Brett Cook, General Manager of Seven Springs, Hidden Valley, and Laurel Mountain. "From our legendary Rib & Wing Festival to concerts under the stars and high-flying fun on the Alpine Slide, there's something unforgettable for everyone. We're turning up the volume on summer."

One of the resort's most beloved summer events, Kids' Mud on the Mountain, returns May 24, kicking off the season with mud, laughter, and unforgettable memories.

"This isn't just a race—it's a muddy rite of passage," added Cook. "It's the kind of adventure kids will talk about all year."

2025 Summer Events at Seven Springs:

- Starting May 23, Seven Springs' signature attractions return, including theAlpine Slide and scenic chairlift rides, open daily through August 29 and on weekends through October 19 (weather permitting).

- May 24: Kids' Mud on the Mountain – Get dirty and dive into the fun!

- July 11–13: Rib & Wing Festival – Savor the region's best BBQ and live music.
- August 22–24: Wine Festival – Sip, swirl, and soak in the mountain vibes.
- Foggy Goggle Concert Series: Every Friday & Saturday night, May 24–Sept. 7– Live music, good vibes, and mountain air.
- Jazz Nights at Helen's Restaurant: Wednesdays, May 29–Aug. 28 – Smooth sounds and upscale dining.
